

US History EOCT GPS

Glossary

Industrialization, Reform, and Imperialism

This category of vocabulary will make up approximately 16% of the test.

Students will understand concepts associated with the growth of US Industry, the Progressive Era, and territorial expansion.

The following is a list of carefully matched vocabulary terms for this section of the test/exam.

Assembly Line

This is a manufacturing process that uses interchangeable parts added in sequence to create a finished product.

Chinese Exclusion Act

This law, passed in 1882, forbade any laborers from China to enter the United States for 10 years.

Eugene Debs

He was a US labor leader who ran for president as a member of the Socialist Party and was jailed during the Pullman Strike.

Great Migration

This was the large movement of African Americans from the Southern U.S. to the Northern U.S. in the early-20th century.

Henry Ford

This was the founder of an automobile company and the first person to apply assembly line manufacturing to affordable automobiles.

Latin America

This is the part of the Western hemisphere where languages derived from Latin (usually Spanish or Portuguese) are the primary language.

Panama Canal

This connects the Atlantic and Pacific oceans through Central America.

Roosevelt Corollary

This policy reasserted the U.S. position as protector of the Western Hemisphere.

Socialism

an economic system where the government controls the major means of production but property and other businesses may be privately owned

Spanish American War

This was a conflict in which the U.S. gained many island territories, especially Puerto Rico and the Philippines.
